

My Notes:

Understanding Executive Function

Executive Functioning is the ability to have multiple things going on in the mind at the same time.

Working Memory - The ability to hold two or more thoughts in the mind and using that information to generate solutions or behaviors.

How Working Memory Affects the Student